Highlights of Trip

New zealand in itself is amazingly beautiful and a hunters paradise. The quality of red stag offered was more than I could've imagined and the tahr hunting in the southern Alps was a once in a lifetime experience for me.

Aside from the hunt, Tim and Kevin were a great joy of the trip, listening to stories of their own adventures and world travels. They are remarkable men and I could not have asked for a better guide duo! They gave every bit of effort to ensure my success.
